Ark Encounter to host world's largest Christian music festival next summer – for 40 days and 40 nights

The Christian Apologetics ministry Answers in Genesis has announced that next year it will host the world's largest Christian music festival at the Ark Encounter, with the festival will going on for 40 days and 40 nights next summer.

From August 2 through September 10, 2021, a who's-who of Gospel music talent will be performing at the festival. The more than 60 artists who have committed to the event include:

- The Hoppers
- The Martins
- Ernie Haase & Signature Sound
- Jeff & Sheri Easter
- Greater Vision
- The Isaacs
- Triumphant

The festival will also include speakers and presenters, with all events scheduled to take place in the 2,500-seat Answers Center at the theme park located just south of Cincinnati in Williamstown, Kentucky.

Access to the festival will not be an additional cost. Those who wish to attend will only have to pay the daily admission price to the Ark Encounter, which will then grant them access to all the concerts, speakers, museums, and exhibits.

About The Ark

Ark Encounter features a full-size Noah's Ark, built according to the dimensions given in the Bible. Spanning 510 feet long (170 yards), 85 feet wide, and 51 feet high, this modern engineering marvel amazes visitors young and old. Ark Encounter is situated in beautiful Grant County in Williamstown, Kentucky, halfway between Cincinnati and Lexington and right off I-75.

"I don't think that there should be any debates," Pelosi said out of the blue at a news conference at the Capitol, saying she doesn't want the debates to be "an exercise in skullduggery."

FAKE MEAT

This veggie burger bleeds, looks & tastes like real meat

As Ron Swanson has proved time and time again, it's tough to beat a hamburger, on a bun, with nothing. But veggie burgers are now getting damn close to that meaty ideal, thanks to a new advance by Impossible Foods: a veggie burger that looks and tastes like a real, medium-rare beef patty. Chris Traeger, eat your heart out.

Based on research conducted by Stanford professor and Impossible Foods founder Patrick Brown, the as-yet unnamed veggie burger has a flavor somewhere between turkey and real beef, and is made out of amino acids and fats that come from plants rather than animals. It's also got an extremely similar consistency to meat, and contains juices derived from molecules found in hemoglobin -- the stuff in blood that makes it red.

With no cholesterol or meat-induced comas after eating, it's possible that this is the vegan-friendly burger of the future. And keep your eyes peeled, because they're also working on vegan versions of cheese and eggs. Could they convert even the staunchest carnivores? No word yet from Mr. Swanson.

U.S. agrees to pay Pfizer and BioNTech \$2 billion for 100 million doses of coronavirus vaccine

The U.S. will pay Pfizer and biotech firm BioNTech $1.95 billion to produce and deliver 100 million doses of their Covid-19 vaccine if it proves safe and effective, the companies announced Wednesday.

It was the largest such deal between the government and companies racing to develop a coronavirus vaccine.

Under the agreement, the U.S. can acquire 500 million additional doses, the Department of Health and Human Services said. Germany-based BioNTech and Pfizer are jointly developing four potential vaccines.

If one of the vaccines proves safe and effective in a large phase three trial and receives regulatory approval, HHS said Pfizer will begin to deliver doses to locations across the U.S. at the government's direction. The vaccine would then be made available to Americans "at no cost," HHS said. It's unclear who the first doses of the potential vaccine would go to and how that decision would be made.

The companies previously said they expect to begin a large trial with up to 30,000 participants later this month, if they receive regulatory approval.

Shares of Pfizer were 3.8% higher in early trading Wednesday and BioNTech stock was up 4%.

PROJECT BLUE BEAM

Project Blue Beam is a conspiracy theory that claims that NASA is attempting to implement a New Age religion with the Antichrist at its head and start a New World Order, via a technologically-simulated Second Coming.

The allegations were presented in 1994 by Quebecois journalist and conspiracy theorist Serge Monast, and later published in his book Project Blue Beam (NASA). Proponents of the theory allege that Monast and another unnamed journalist, who both died of heart attacks in 1996, were in fact assassinated, and that the Canadian government kidnapped Monast's daughter in an effort to dissuade him from investigating Project Blue Beam.

SEX RINGS CONSPIRACY???

Ex-Cardinal Theodore McCarrick Accused Of Running Sex Ring Out Of New Jersey Beach House

Ex-Cardinal Theodore McCarrick has been accused of running a underage sex ring out of his New Jersey beach house.

The victim, identified only as “Doe 14” claimed the sexual abuse began when he was 14 at McCarrick’s beach house in 1982, according to a lawsuit filed Tuesday in the New Jersey Superior Court, the New York Post reported. The victim, now 53, claims he was abused by McCarrick and three other priests.

“In the night, with the assistance of others, McCarrick would creep into this kid’s bed and engage in criminal sexual assault of him, whispering, ‘It is OK,’” attorney for the victim Jeff Anderson said at a press conference.

The other three priests involved were named as Gerald Ruane, Michael Walters and John Laferrera. All three had been previously accused of sexual abuse and exposed when New Jersey’s Catholic dioceses released 188 names of credibly accused priests in 2019.

Grammy-winning producer Detail arrested on 15 sexual assault charges

A Grammy-winning music producer known as Detail has been arrested on 15 sexual assault charges and five additional felony assault-related charges, authorities said Wednesday.

The producer, whose real name is Noel Fisher, was arrested Wednesday by the L.A. County Sheriff's Department and is being investigated for incidents that occurred between 2010 and 2018, the department said in a media release.

According to the Associated Press, in 2019 a model who alleged in a lawsuit that she had been raped and sexually and emotionally abused by Fisher was awarded $15 million in Los Angeles Superior Court. Fisher, the news agency reported, won a Grammy for co-writing the Beyonce and Jay-Z hit duet "Drunk in Love."
